Summer Concert Series

*Tappan Square Clark Bandstand
June 12 - August 7 at 7:00 p.m.*

Oberlin's 17th Annual Summer Concert Series is offering a variety of activities for its audience, including the ever popular Peppy the Clown.

JUNE 12 - E.T. King and the Determination

Come check out our first Concert of the Summer Concert Series on Tappan Square. Oberlin's own E.T. King plays Rhythm & Blues.

JUNE 19 - Cats on Holiday

"Purveyors of Roots, Cajun, Country and Americana music, the band's instrumentation of violin, button-box, washboard, lap-steel, guitars..."

JUNE 26 - Geeze Cats

Featuring the classic songs of the pre-Beatle days of the late '50s and early '60s -- the Golden Age of Rock 'n' Roll.

JULY 3 - Heelsplitter

Cleveland-based group plays original Americana/Garage/Acoustic tunes featuring guitar, banjo, and mandolin.

JULY 10 - Battle of the Bands

Applications being accepted. Deadline is May 31, 2009.

JULY 17 - Tie-Dye Harvest

Listen to your favorite Classic Rock tunes, original music, and improv jams from Tie-Dye Harvest while Tie-Dying T-shirts in Tappan Square!

JULY 24 - Dan Zola Orchestra

Dan Zola Orchestra, a 19-piece band well known for their swing and dance tunes, plays Christmas in July.

JULY 31 - Walkin' Cane & Kristine Jackson

Two talented singer/songwriter/musicians combine forces and draw from roots in blues, jazz, country, folk, soul, and rock 'n' roll.

AUGUST 7 - Patriots Band

Headquartered in Lorain County, Ohio, the band strives to preserve 'Americana' by performing music in the form of an American-style hometown concert band.
